STORM DAMAGE AT PARKVIEW SCHOOL Saturday afternoon. High winds blew gymnasium roofing panel into the north parking lot, nearly hitting four youths who sought shelter from the storm on the small porch at the left. Granite City Patrolman Tim Lyerla is shown in the parking lot. Witnesses said lightning struck about the time the roofing flew off. Water accumulated on the gymnasium floor. (Press-Record Photo)

3 windstorms cause damage

Storms accompanied by high winds and heavy rainfall swept through the Quad-City area Saturday and Sunday afternoons, causing damage in scattered areas.

The storm which hit the area at 4 p.m. Saturday damaged trees and several schools, but rainfall was heavy only in scattered areas.

Two other storms, at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. Sunday, hit the Quad-Cities with a more general downpour that measured 1.67 inches at the Chain of Rocks locks here. High winds, brief but severe, accompanied both Sunday storms.

Particularly high winds were reported Saturday in the area of Parkview School on Maryville Road, where the tarpaper was torn from the gymnasium roof and hurled to the north side of the school, barely missing four children who had sought cover under a small porch on that side of the building about 4 p.m. Saturday.

At the nearby Parkside Food Shop, 2302 Maryville Road, the wind opened a swinging front door and blew through hard enough to open the rear door, setting off a burglar alarm at 4:10 p.m.

There also was a report of damage at Grigby Junior High School on Cargill Road, caused by high winds.

Intense lightning was reported in many areas and witnesses said they believed lightning struck Parkview School, although there were no immediate signs of lightning damage.

The wind which blew the tarpaper from the gymnasium roof at Parkview was accompanied by heavy rains which flooded the gymnasium floor. No damage estimates were available.

The storms Sunday afternoon blew down trees and large tree limbs, broke power lines and flooded hundreds of basements and streets in Granite City, Madison, Venice and other parts of the area.

Retroactive wages

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

The biggest payroll of any single pay period in the city's history was distributed Friday to Granite City employees—a total of $284,569.

The record payroll included checks covering 6 percent salary raises granted employees of the police, fire and street departments under new working agreements completed only recently.

Those agreements—which took a year to negotiate—provided that all pay raises would be retroactive to May 1, 1977. As a result, employees of the three departments, received Friday the 6 percent increase for a full year to the beginning of this month.

In addition, another 8 percent increase representing salary raises for the current fiscal year to May 1, 1979, became effective this month for employees of the police and fire departments, along with a new 6 percent salary raise for street department employees.

Since the new raises for this year became effective May 1, regular payroll checks for May 15 to May 30, which also were distributed Friday and were a part of the $284,569 payroll, reflected higher salaries for all city employees.

The payroll checks distributed Friday by the office of City Clerk Robert Stevens totaled $130,520 in back salaries for employees of the fire, police and street departments, and a total of $154,049 in regular semi-monthly pay to all city employees.

Learn-swim campaign here

The Tri-City Area YMCA at 2801 Edison Ave. will participate in National YMCA Learn to Swim Week during the week of June 5-9.

Learn to Swim Week is designed to provide non-swimmers, ages six and over, with basic water skills. Classes are scheduled throughout the day and are held daily.

Enrollment is limited to insure a good student-teacher ratio, so prompt registration at the "Y" is being urged.

Sponsors are the Press-Record and the YMCA.

Classes will be conducted at 8:45 and 9:30 a.m. and 1:45, 2:30, 4:45, 6:30 and 7:15 p.m. The latter group will be for those aged 16 and older.

YMCA Physical Director Edward R. Mercer said those with questions about the instruction for non-swimmers may contact the "Y" at 876-7200.

The cost will be lower than usual. Certificates of completion will be issued.

Michael Kelly killed

Michael Patrick Kelly, 18, of 3210a Kilarey Drive, died at 9 p.m. Friday of injuries sustained in an auto accident near Greer's Ferry Lake on the Missouri-Arkansas border.

Mr. Kelly and a passenger in the car, Ken Wiesehan of Granite City, had completed a scuba diving course last week at the Tri-City Area YMCA and were enroute to Greer's Ferry Lake for an open water test dive to meet requirements as certified divers.

The accident occurred in mid-afternoon Friday, about 20 miles from their destination, near Heber Springs, a resort community on the lake.

According to authorities, Mr. Kelly was driving the vehicle when the right front tire went off the pavement at a curve. The car crossed the roadway and plunged down a small embankment, turning over. Mr. Kelly was thrown from the vehicle and suffered massive chest and abdominal injuries and head injuries. He was taken by ambulance to the Heber Springs Hospital and later transferred to New Baptist Medical Center in Little Rock, Ark., about 70 miles away. (Continued on Page 12)

Sets high sales pace in Florida

A former Granite City resident, Mrs. Patti (Harris) Fleishman, now living in Fort Myers, Fla., has achieved sales of more than $1 million in real estate during the past year, according to a family spokesman here.

She sold 132 lot and house packages costing nearly $4.5 million for her employers Mel Levy and Irv Berman of Hartford Homes, Fort Myers development, according to the spokesman.

The Miami-based developers of Rainbow Ridge, a North Fort Myers development, hired Mrs. Fleishman as an employee of Hartford Homes. She operated the Rainbow Ridge sales office, arranged financing, completed forms, helped decorate models and managed to sell a house every three days or so, it was noted.

To accomplish her goal of selling 100 pieces of property in a year, she worked 60 hours a week, and at the end of the year realized she had topped her own expectations.

Mrs. Fleishman and her husband, Arnold, have resided in Florida for two years. They are the parents of two sons, David, who is 18, and Gregory, 16.

Summer appeal for mission seminarians

The Society of the Propagation of the Faith has announced its Springfield diocese summer appeal program for educating Catholic seminarians in mission countries.

"The church is beautiful in the missions," comments Father Kevin B. Sullivan, diocesan mission director, "but it is very poor. There are more than 40,000 young men in mission seminaries today, and the ability to support them in their six-year course of study is a problem."

At the end of 1977, there were 37,231 students in 397 minor seminaries and 9,683 students in 90 major seminaries under the direction of the Society.

In addition, there were 682 ordinations to the priesthood, 331 of them were African, and 307 were Asians.

During the past year, $3,671,186 was expended for new seminary facilities, and improvements on existing ones; $10,480,296 was used to clothe, feed, and educate seminarians. It costs the Society an average of $250 per student per year to educate a seminarian.

SEMINARIAN aided by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Gifts for this summer in any amount are being sent to Father Sullivan, Diocesan Mission Office, 800 S. 5th St., Springfield, Ill. 62705.

GC man charged

Edward Swank, 33, of 1728 Chestnut St., was charged with disorderly conduct after he allegedly scuffled with officers at this home and threatened to throw a brick at one at 4:40 p.m. Thursday.

Patrolman Kenneth Crawford answered a disturbance call in that block and a 9-year-old boy alleged he was yelling and cursing at the officer and was beating on the top of a car. Patrolman Jerry Duncan arrived and it was alleged the man picked up a brick and warned Duncan to stay back. The officers took the brick from the man. He was taken to the Granite City Jail and was released after posting $35 cash bond Friday morning.

Economy better, tax receipts up in state

The Illinois economy continues to rebound from the winter doldrums, with state tax receipts running higher than a year ago, Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis said Friday in his May report on Illinois' fiscal condition.

He said $30 million to $40 million in special state funds provide an added surplus that further strengthens the state's fiscal condition.

In the first 10 months of fiscal 1978 (July 1977-April 1978):

—Sales tax receipts are up 11.1 percent, or $154 million, over a year ago.

—Income tax receipts have increased by 4.9 percent, or $77 million ahead of fiscal 1976-77.

—Public utility tax receipts climbed $30 million, or 10.9 percent.

—General fund cigarette tax yields have risen 10.4 percent, or $14 million above the comparable period last year.

—State inheritance tax receipts have risen 36.8 percent, or $25 million higher than the same 10-month period a year ago.

Currently running against the present governor, he asserted, "The state's general fund balance continues to be understated by $30 million to $40 million because of larger than usual accumulations in special state funds."

Life begins at 30

KRIS KRISTOFFERSON — Easter Island (Columbia) — The multi-talented Kristofferson can do it all, from singing to composing and acting. He's written hit songs ("Me And Bobby McGee" and "Sunday Mornin' Comin' Down"), starred in the movies ("A Star Is Born") and made hit albums with a countryish flavor. And he didn't get started until he was in his 30s.

Can't get any better

Morton Gould and his Symphonic Band play Sousa: "Stars and Stripes Forever," "Semper Paratus," "Washington Post," "El Capitan," "The Thunderer," and other marches (PMC 7042). There simply isn't better playing of Sousa marches on records.

Gould and his orchestra play Rimski-Korsakov's "Scheherazade" (PMC 7042). This record was a smash hit in 1956 when it was issued. It still is one of the two best recordings on budget discs.

Burgers don't have to be 'junk'

Hamburgers have been much maligned, classified most incorrectly as "junk food." Lean ground beef is a fine source of energy and protein, and a good source of iron, vitamin A, thiamin, riboflavin, niacin and ascorbic acid.

A hamburger meal becomes a "junk food" lunch only when a pile of grease-soaked potatoes and a glass of artificially colored, artificially flavored drink accompanies it. Instead, have a salad or apple instead of potatoes, a glass of milk instead of a plinky liquid substance, and at sometime in the day have something made of whole grain, because most hamburger buns are made of pretty worthless white flour.

Here's a way to elevate hamburger from the junk status to a nutritional experience:

BEEFBURGERS

2 lbs. ground beef
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 medium onion, chopped
2 tps. salt
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup evaporated milk

Combine ground beef, bread crumbs, onion, salt, mustard and pepper. Stir in evaporated milk and shape mixture into 6 to 8 patties, 4 inches in diameter. Place on rack in broiler pan so surface of meat is 3 to 4 inches from the heat. Broil 6 to 8 minutes; turn and broil 6 to 8 minutes; to doneness desired. Place each patty on a toasted English muffin half. Serve mushroom sauce over patties. Serves 6 to 8.

HOLOCAUST: by Gerald Green; Bantam Books (paperback); 408 pages; $2.25. This is the emotional story of two fictional families, one Nazi, one Jewish, each swept up by the war in Europe against the Jews from 1933 to 1945. The book was published to coincide with the telecast of "Holocaust," filmed entirely on location in Europe. The tragic story covers the years just before enactment of the anti-Semitic Nuremberg laws to the liberation of the infamous Auschwitz Nazi prison camp in 1945. "Holocaust" was chosen as an alternate selection of the Literary Guild and the Doubleday Book Club. Green wrote the best-selling "The Last Angry Man."

Sound, light resume at old state capitol

"Sound and Light at the Old State Capitol" began its third season Saturday evening, and will be presented nightly except Mondays at 9 o'clock - weather permitting - through Saturday, Sept. 9.

Admission is free to the 45-minute multi-media electronic production. Audiences are seated in a special portable grandstand on the south mall of the Old State Capitol plaza in downtown Springfield.

The voice of the late Lee J. Cobb narrates the story of Abraham Lincoln's association with the Old Capitol, his political career and his approach to the issues that precipitated the Civil War.

The drama is contained on a one-inch eight-track magnetic tape, 3,400 feet long, moving at 15 inches per second.

The tape, which plays voices, music and sound effects over 11 strategically placed high fidelity speakers, also activates more than 160 lighting fixtures to pre-coded color and intensity levels.

This technology is said to enable sound and light to exploit the power of suggestion to such a degree that the audience - in its mind's eye - begins to "see and hear" the events that took place when Lincoln lived in Springfield and worked in the Old Capitol.

Street lighting and store display lighting adjacent to the Old Capitol are extinguished during "Sound and Light at the Old State Capitol" to minimize

20th Century Charles Edward Fuchs, Laura Ann Galbreath, Eugene Stanley Gargac, Tommy Manuel Gaudreault, Randy W. Gay, Larry Dean Gieselman, Sharon Lynn Glendenning, Cheryl Lynn Goodrich, James Edward Goodyear, Richard David Gragg, Vic D. Graham, Street traffic on adjoining streets is also halted. For one hour each performance evening beginning at 8:45, Sixth Street is closed at Monroe, Adams at Seventh, Fifth at Jefferson, and Washington at Fourth.

"Sound and Light at the Old State Capitol" is operated by the Illinois State Historical Library. Comments or queries regarding the presentation are directed to: Illinois State Historical, Old State Capitol, Springfield, Ill., 62766, telephone (217) 782-4336.

DRIVER INJURED
Albert Kutner, 53, of 2909 Fortune Drive, suffered minor injury when his car and the delivery truck of Richard Weber, St. Louis, collided at 20th and Adams streets last week. Kutner suffered pain in his neck and head and was X-rayed and released from St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Giving one's best in the game of life

Participants in athletic competition have better opportunities to achieve success in the game of life," according to Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, president of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Addressing the all-sports banquet at Lincoln Land Community College last week in Springfield, Dr. Shaw said persons who take advantage of sports programs are "accentuating the positive by acquiring the best possible skills along with solid self-confidence, learning to cooperate with others in striving toward common goals, and just plain having fun."

The president said, "If you do these things, your competition will be too rich and honest to let you be one-dimensional, and your perspective will always be on the mark."

Dr. Shaw continued, "As long as you concentrate on giving your best, avoiding the shadow of fear that haunts all losers, you will be able to play the game, bringing yourself spontaneous pleasure, productive health and understanding as well."

Speaking from his own experience in high school and intercollegiate competition and his current athletic endeavors, including jogging and tennis, Pres. Shaw said, "Sport embodies very crucial values, central not only to physical development but to ethical growth."

"We cannot all be champions at everything, but the essence of the true athletic competitor is in the love of the game for its own sake — for the impact of knowing that even in defeat you gave your best."

He said when persons learn to do something well, they learn to recognize more clearly the relationship between labor put into the effort and the value of accomplishments.

"This proper appreciation has tremendous carry-over into fresh challenges. And, to our pleasant surprise, we often discover we can accomplish things we didn't realize we were capable of," Dr. Shaw said.

"To discover that our reach was equal to our grasp instills the confidence necessary to go on to even greater heights."

Emphasizing the importance of athletic competition "for the pure, sheer fun of it," the president was critical of those who take sports too seriously.

"Granted, there is a lot of fun in winning, but it should never be at the expense of higher pleasures of knowing that victory was achieved as part of a team effort or that we had to bend the rules or knowingly risk injury to achieve it," he said.

Citing other pitfalls in sports, Dr. Shaw said there are dangers of becoming too "onesided," failing to realize the essential meaning of sport itself.

He pointed to the "sad story" of the high school hero, standing on a corner living in past glories, having found that life is more complicated than he had let himself imagine.

The president said it is important to strive to be "multi-dimensional." He said athletes often forget to be students first and players second.

"We must know how to give 100 percent on the field, but we will be seriously out of synchronization if we don't recognize that we must give 100 percent to the classroom, too."

A fully-rounded person views every situation as a potential learning experience," Dr. Shaw added.

The president named numerous famous personalities who took advantage of study opportunities while they were athletes. As an example, he said, "President John F. Kennedy did not put Byron Whizzer" White on the Supreme Court because of his exploits on the football field."

Dr. Shaw warned the athletes against thinking they are likely to get contracts in professional sports. "Most just aren't going to make it," he said.

The president suggested development of the skill of "inner communication." He said, "Sport is always a game — a simulation of life."

"Too many people get it the other way around. 'Keeping the proper perspective on what is only, but truly, a game makes winners.' Condemning those who pervert sports, Dr. Shaw said parents who are too emotional should stay away from "little league" games, as well as fans who go wild at football and hockey games, "lusting for violent, vicious contact instead of appreciating grace of movement and nuance of strategy."

"Such people ruin the spectacle both for players and those who have paid to see the whole game and everything it has to offer," he said.

Dr. Shaw said the proper perspective was demonstrated recently at Special Olympics competition held on the SIUE campus. "The spirit of these people taught us that such people will never lose; they try their best against all the odds."

APPROACHED IN PARK Two girls, ages 7 and 8, told police that an older man had picked them up, hugged them and asked them to accompany him home during a school picnic in Wilson Park at 4:15 p.m. Thursday. They said he was an older man with glasses and wore a blue shirt.

Seith and Percy differ on jet sale

By ROBERT ESTILL, Press-Record

Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., says he has had a "surprising lack of flak" over his support of simultaneous jet fighter sales to Saudi Arabia, Egypt and Israel. But his outgunned Democratic opponent, Alex Seith, is seizing on the senator's vote as a means to try to "shoot down" the high-flying incumbent. Seith, a decided underdog, is capitalizing on Percy's position as a means of winning votes not only from Jews opposed to the sale to the Saudis but with other Illinoisans concerned about the U.S. selling its sophisticated F-15 fighters.

Within three days after Percy announced his position, Seith charged that selling F-15s to the Saudis jeopardizes the security of both the U.S. and Israel. Seith said it would take only one defector to "put America's plane of the future into the hands of the Russians."

That sort of argument, of course, has appeal not only to those concerned with Israel's future but to conservatives who never have been enamored of Percy. The Jewish constituency alone in Illinois is sizeable. Gerry South, Seith's campaign manager, estimates there are 500,000 Jews in Illinois and that 250,000 to 350,000 of them probably are voters.

In addition to his press conference blasting Percy's position, Seith has appeared before the executive committee of the Chicago Board of Rabbis and will be addressing the Chicago Rabbinical Council on June 22.

Seith is not only raising the question of threats to U.S. and Israeli security but also is saying the presence of the F-15 jets in Saudi Arabia could widen any Arab-Israeli rift. In the event of war, the Israelis would have to launch a preemptive strike against the Saudi's F-15s and bring them into the war. Percy said he raised questions about that possibility during hearings on the arms sales, and the result was an agreement that the jets would not be used aggressively, not transferred to other countries and not stationed at Tabuk, the Saudi airfield close to Israel. He said if the U.S. had not sold F-15s to the Saudis, they could have bought sophisticated Mirage 400 jet fighters from the French without any restrictions and in greater numbers.

Percy said the Saudis feel the need for advanced fighters to protect their oil fields from the Soviet-built Mig fighters of Libya and Iraq.

He adds, "U.S. ties with the Saudis are such that the U.S. can use its clout" to assure that the Saudi jets will not be used against Israel.

Percy said his response from the Jewish community was that they were disappointed but understood his position.

He feels his record of support for Israel and for Soviet Jews will prevent Jewish voters from flocking to Seith.

"I have been in the forefront of fighting for Soviet Jewry," he said. "I have been one of the most successful senators in getting people out of the Soviet Union."

Saying he has used his position on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to aid Jews, Percy asks: "How could they vote against me?" He also asks: "Would anyone really have felt my opponent would have taken any position different than President Carter?"

South believes Percy will find Jews voting against him. He said telephones were "ringing off the wall" at Seith's Chicago headquarters after Percy supported the jet sales, and the vote has also spurred contributions to the campaign. He sees it as an issue that will not be forgotten by election day Nov. 7.

Engagements and weddings of Quad-City couples

MR. AND MRS. KENT BOSWORTH. They were united in marriage at St. Mark Roman Catholic Church. Formerly Miss Jacqueline D. Parker, the bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Buechele, 1312 Oriole St., Venice.

Jacqueline Parker and Kent Bosworth are wed

Miss Jacqueline D. Parker, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Buechele, 1312 Oriole St., Venice, became the bride of Kent M. Bosworth, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bosworth, 2861 Revere Rd., Granite City, on May 6, at St. Mark Roman Catholic Church in Venice.

Father Elzear Gehlen officiated at the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, before an altar decorated with bouquets of white daisies and summer flowers.

Bridesmaid, Miss Alex McGeehee played "The Wedding Song," "Ave Maria" and "More" during the service.

For her wedding, the former Miss Parker chose a formal length white organza gown designed with an Empire bodice featuring a sheer yoke, high neckline and long tapered sleeves, accented with Alencon lace and seed pearls.

Matching lace motifs were applied on the hemline of the A-line skirt and bordered the chapel length train.

She wore a beaded cap to secure her fingertip mantilla veil, edged with lace, and she held a colonial bouquet of spring flowers, tied with white satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Herb Sadler, a sister of the bride, and bridesmaids included Loretta Pace, Connie Davis, the groom's sister, Mrs. Kent Boelling and Melena Eberhold.

Attend state PTA convention

Mrs. Barbara Haddock, president of the Granite City Area Council of PTAs, and ten other council members and school faculty members last week attended the 76th annual convention of the 300,000-member Illinois PTA at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

Attending from here in addition to Mrs. Haddock were Julia Gates, vice president of the Granite City Area Council of PTAs; Jim Jeffries, principal of Webster School; Ted Vrenick, principal of Wilson School; Metella Mason, teacher at Wilson School; Larry Smallie, teacher at Johnson School.

Also Allen Oraboud, president of the Johnson School PTA; David and Storetta Johnson of Lake School; Dorothy Baker of Wilson School and Bill Smithson, president of Wilson School PTA.

"Reaching Out for Today's Family" was the theme of the convention, emphasizing the PTA's motivation to preserve and strengthen the American Family. Through the activities of the convention, particularly the keynote address by the National PTA representative, Colonel Robert Cameau, the reality of PTA involvement in the problems of the times which relates to the welfare of children and youth, was stressed, Mrs. Haddock said.

"Delegates were given the opportunity to discuss current important issues," Mrs. Haddock noted. Conference delegates focused on such issues as the impact of collective bargaining on education; school desegregation and learning to learn together; parenthood education; child abuse and juvenile justice; update on TV violence; school education and finance; current programs in health and safety; special education and the law; and leadership training and parliamentary procedure.

Highlights of the convention included addresses by Mrs. W. Dale Himes, Illinois PTA president, Joseph P. Hannon, superintendent of Chicago Schools; Michael J. Blandie, Mayor of Chicago, and banquet speaker Wayne Nordstrom, United Methodist Lay pastor and noted humorist.

Special events included the scholarship luncheon honoring student winners and the conference on collective bargaining with Past National President Mrs. Walter Kimmel.

Resolutions considered by delegates during the convention included one providing "that the ICTP support legislation appropriating funds for school desegregation in Illinois."

Others included resolution on noise pollution to promote training of students in life saving procedures such as the Heimlich Maneuver; that the ICTP urge legislation to set higher standards for the children of Illinois and remove those mandated school programs which are not in the best interest of good education for the children, Mrs. Haddock said.

Mrs. Arlene Ziecke, legislative chairman of the ICTP, addressed the delegates in regard to the Tuition Tax Credit Bill pending in Congress. Among the reasons cited for opposing this legislation was the financial burden that would be placed on the funds available for public schools. She also stated that passage of these bills will make the federal deficit higher. She urged the delegates to continue writing their representatives in Washington to vote against the Tuition Tax Credit Bill.

Upon completion of her speech, a motion was made from the floor that telegrams be sent to each Illinois senator and congressmen and express opposition to the bills. The motion passed unanimously. Funds for this undertaking were furnished by voluntary donations from the delegates attending the convention.

The following officers were elected to serve for two terms. President, Mrs. Louis Veranda; first vice president, Mrs. Thomas Whalen; second vice president, Mrs. Hortense Rainer; third vice president, Mrs. Pat Pickett; treasurer, Mrs. Wayne Foxworthy.

Mrs. Veronica stated that this annual meeting of around 1,200 delegates from every area of Illinois, offered all those in attendance an opportunity to actively participate in the formulation of Illinois PTA priorities for 1978-1979, Mrs. Haddock noted.

Wiesehan, who was thrown into the back seat of the car, escaped with minor injuries. He was treated at the hospital and released.

Mr. Kelly's brother, Richard Kelly, 19, also a student in the YMCA scuba course, was traveling in the lake in another vehicle, a short distance behind the car operated by his brother, Michael.

The two autos had been traveling west together on Interstate 44, until becoming separated at the Highway 63 interchange in Rolla, Mo.

It is believed Richard's car was trailing his brother's vehicle by 15 minutes and he came upon the accident scene as the ambulance arrived.

Phil Deming, YMCA scuba instructor, had not yet left his area enroute to the diving site when notified of the accident.

He said today that a CB report of the crash brought an ambulance to the scene.

Beside Michael and his brother, Richard Kelly, a cousin, Ron Kelly, 20, of Granite City, was enrolled in the 32-hour scuba course and was to make his initial open water dive during the weekend.

"It was a very sad weekend for everybody," Deming said. Mr. Kelly was a lifelong resident of Granite City. He was to begin his sophomore year this fall at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Surviving are his parents, Richard Kelly of Granite City and Mrs. Geraldine Kelly, the latter is employed in the Press-Record offices, his brother, Richard Kelly of Granite City, two sisters, Miss Deborah Kelly and Miss Kathleen Kelly, both at home, a maternal grandmother, Mrs. Stella Kutera of Granite City and his paternal grandparents, Leo and Winnie Kelly of Granite City.

Funeral arrangements may be found in today's obituary column.

Mrs. Florence Linkeman dies

Mrs. Florence Linkeman (Hoekstra), 68, of 3132 Carlson Ave., died at 12:10 a.m. Saturday at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis. She had been ill six months and in the hospital five days.

Mrs. Linkeman was a lifelong resident of Madison County and was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ and the church's Evening Guild.

Surviving are her husband, Harvey Linkeman, two daughters, Mrs. Harry (Jackie) Logan and Mrs. Bill (Debbie) Duffield, both of Granite City; two brothers, Raymond and Roland Hoekstra, both of Granite City, and four grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements will be found in today's obituary column.

Windstorms

most of the power outages in the area during Sunday's storm, according to a spokesman for the Illinois Power Co.

Lightning knocked out fuses in two transformers during the storm, the spokesman said, but repairs were made within an hour.

From 400 to 500 customers were without power at various times during and immediately after the storm Sunday, but most of these had power restored within an hour.

Two extra crews of power company linemen worked overnight Sunday restoring individual outages caused by falling tree limbs or the wind, the spokesman said.

Basements in many homes in Venice were flooded and the Broadway underpass was blocked after the heavy downpour Sunday afternoon as the result of a delay in turning on the pumps in the Metro-East Sanitary District pumphouse on the side of the levee in the 300 block of Bremen Street. The pumps were turned on about 4:30 a.m.

According to Venice Superintendent of Streets Tom Scaturro, the pumps must be turned on manually.

It was not until 4:30 p.m. Sunday that Venice officials were able to locate Russell Robinson, president of the district board, who then located a pump operator.

No one had a key to the new pumphouse and the lock had to be cut to enter and start the pumps.

Since the water had no where to go until the pump started, it backed into the sewers and into the basements. The underpass in Venice was blocked from about 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

There are pumps in the underpass that turn on automatically, which they did, but with the main pumps in the area, the water backed into the underpass.

A few limbs were reported down in Venice as a result of Sunday's storm.

Large tree limbs fell as a result of the high winds Sunday afternoon in Madison.

Madison Superintendent of Streets Robbie Robbins, who visited the area, said, "We had one tree fall all the way over in the 2000 block of Edwardsville Road. Very large limbs, and I do mean large, fell in various parts of the city."

"The 1600 block on Second Street was partially blocked by large fallen limbs, along with part of Edwardsville Road in about the 1900 block.

"Farish and Rhodes Street also were blocked for a while. We will be spending all day today (Tuesday) just picking up the branches that have fallen," he added.

A spokesman for the city burglar alarm system in Madison reported that the storm Sunday got off a couple of alarms through the phone lines, but no real problems were noted.

Streets became flooded due to the heavy rains overflowing the curbs, but the water quickly drained as the storm diminished.

Saturday's rain was in such scattered areas that the Chain of Rocks locks registered zero rainfall for the Saturday and Sunday morning period ending at 8 a.m. Sunday. The National Weather Service at St. Louis registered only a "trace" of rainfall for the same period.

Mrs. Waters dies at 70
Mrs. Irene (Gorman) Waters, 70, of Rural Route Two, Fredricktown, Mo., formerly of Granite City, died at 6:07 a.m. Monday at the Community Hospital in Farmington, Mo.

She had been hospitalized one week.

Mrs. Waters was born in Indiana and was a long time resident of this area.

Survivors include her husband, O. E. "Pat" Waters.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

HUSBAND IS CHARGED
Ricky Pulley, 18, of 2015 Washington Ave., was arrested after a disturbance at his home at 12:40 a.m. Monday and was charged with battery in a complaint signed by his wife, Shelly. She alleged he struck her several times during an argument.

Drowns in canal

John P. Hodge, 21, of Fairmont City, drowned about 6:30 p.m. Monday in the Chain of Rocks Canal about a mile north of Interstate 270.

Charles McClain, 20, Collinsville, who was with Mr. Hodge when he drowned, said the two were fishing from the canal bank about three hours before Mr. Hodge said he was going swimming.

He went out about 40 to 50 yards into the canal and began calling for help, McClain said. McClain then jumped into the water, swam out to Hodge and tried to pull him to shore.

McClain said he became too tired to continue the rescue attempt and was afraid he might drown if he continued, so he swam to the shore and got in his car to summon help.

Madison County sheriff's deputies were called and requested help from the Alton Volunteer Emergency Corps. Rescue workers dragged the canal until finding Mr. Hodge's body at 8:07 p.m. Sunday.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by Madison County Deputy Coroner Dick Mizell and was taken to a local funeral home for an autopsy.

Rebecca Seymour auto victim

Rebecca Seymour, 20, of Fremont, Calif., a daughter of a former long-time Granite City resident, was injured fatally in a traffic accident at 4 a.m. Saturday, near Fremont.

Mrs. Wanda Watson of Granite City, an aunt, said today her niece was driving along a highway when the hood of the vehicle opened, obscuring her vision. She alighted from the auto to close the hood and was struck by a passing vehicle.

Funeral services were scheduled at 1 p.m. today in Fremont.

Rites today for Mrs. Lora Fleig
Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. today at a Catholic funeral home for Mrs. Lora D. Fleig, 62, of Cahokia, mother of Schrock Fleig of Granite City.

Mrs. Fleig died Friday at Four Fountains Convalescent Home, Belleville.

Survivors include another son and two daughters, two brothers and two sisters.

Clarence R. Lee rites held Monday
Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Joseph's Church, East St. Louis, for Clarence R. Lee, 74, of East St. Louis, who died Friday at Memorial Hospital, Belleville.

He was the father of Louis C. Lee of Granite City.

He also is survived by his wife, Mary Lee and two other sons.

Man grazed by car
Joseph Enrichel, 35, of 2808 National Ave., suffered injuries to his back and right leg when he was grazed by the auto of Charles Cox, 2209 Miracle Ave., during a disturbance in the 2800 block of Indiana Avenue at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Cox said Enrichel was standing outside Cox's car, reached in and grabbed the driver's shirt, and Cox then turned his car in a U-turn to get away and struck the pedestrian.

Enrichel underwent X-rays at St. Elizabeth Hospital and was released.

Armed robbery at service station

An armed robber took about $200 to $250 cash and a wallet from an attendant at the Spartan service station, 2905 Edwardsville Road, at 7:20 p.m. Friday.

The attendant, Matt Legate, said three black men in an older green car first asked for directions to the Granite City Steel blast furnace division and the machine, the man said he had lost his money and did not get a soft drink. Legate then stopped over, opened the machine and when he looked behind him, he saw all three men in the office.

One man held a knife to Legate's back and ordered him to go into the back room. There, the men took his wallet from his pocket and took the money changer from his belt. They then ordered him to lie on the floor and then locked the door to the back room.

Legate waited a few minutes before he got up and picked the door lock to get it open. He then called police.

Wayne McKeown, Ferguson, Mo., told Venice police at 9:30 a.m. Friday that two youths had robbed him in Venice Saturday, May 20, taking about $50 from his wallet and his watch and diamond wedding ring.

McKeown said he walked from a liquor store to his truck and noticed two youths on the sidewalk near the vehicle. When he got into the driver's seat, one youth got in the passenger side and the other approached the driver's door.

He was ordered to get them money and said he had none, he related. They then demanded his wallet, removed $50 from it and demanded two more, he related.

McKeown said he had no more money, and they then demanded his watch and ring. The victim said he then reached for his CB radio and the youths tried to tear the radio from the dashboard. One youth then warned him, "A dead man can't talk," and both men got out of the truck.

He said the robbers displayed no weapons. They were black and one was about 17 years old, weighed about 135 pounds and was about five feet, eight inches tall. The other was 18 to 19 years old, weighed about 165 pounds and was about five feet, 10 inches tall. Both had short Afro-type haircuts, he related.

he went to their car to give them directions.

One man got out, saying he wanted to use the restroom. Legate then returned to the office and one man followed him, saying he was going to purchase a soft drink.

After putting some money in the machine, the man said he had lost his money and did not get a soft drink. Legate then stopped over, opened the machine and when he looked behind him, he saw all three men in the office.

One man held a knife to Legate's back and ordered him to go into the back room. There, the men took his wallet from his pocket and took the money changer from his belt. They then ordered him to lie on the floor and then locked the door to the back room.

Legate waited a few minutes before he got up and picked the door lock to get it open. He then called police.

Forced into tree
Two young men were injured when their auto was forced off the roadway on State Street at the curve near 30th Street and struck a tree and then a utility pole.

The driver, Michael Scannell, 17, of 51 Villa Drive, suffered scratches to his left forearm and was released from St. Elizabeth Hospital after treatment and X-rays.

A passenger, Louis Bloncin, III, 17, of 339 Colgate Ave., suffered a cut to his left wrist and abrasions to his left hand and was released from St. Elizabeth Hospital after treatment and X-rays.

The two told police they were northbound and saw a southbound, cream-colored 1964 Chevrolet Nova or Chevelle approaching in their lane, forcing them to swerve left and lose control. The southbound auto left the scene without stopping.

County Urban League ends year

One year of service to Madison County residents was reviewed Thursday night as the Madison County Urban League held its first annual membership meeting.

George W. Dickerson, president of the board of directors, recalled the beginning of the 19th affiliate of the National Urban League on May 25, 1977, as a result of action by the National Urban League board of directors.

The Madison County Urban League, a member agency of the Tri-Cities Area United Way, strives to improve the quality of life for blacks, other minorities, and the disadvantaged in Madison County through the areas of economic development and employment as well as community development programs.

Executive Director Willie F. Walker traced the expansion of the two basic program areas into the present areas of job development, counseling to persons placed in training or employment, and housing counseling, family planning and community relations.

Over 2,000 persons were served by the new affiliate during its first months of operation in 1977, he said. Four new members were elected to the Madison County Urban League's board of directors.

Russell C. Solomon Jr., vice-president of quality control at the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corporation, has been affiliated with GC Steel in various capacities since 1955.

Awarded the honorary degree of professional metallurgical engineer from the University of Missouri, Rolla, in 1974, Solomon is active in local and national professional and civic groups.

A resident of Edwardsville, he was selected in 1973 for inclusion in the Engineers Joint Council publication, "Engineers of Distinction," and in the current edition of "Who's Who in Finance and Industry."

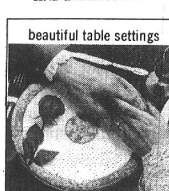

Retired plant manager Mitchell B. Milonski of the American Steel Foundries also was elected to the board. He is active on the governing board of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Marshall H. Pepper, who for the past 13 years has been associated with the A.O. Smith Corporation plant in Granite City, has for the past year been personnel manager. He is a former officer, pilot and radar controller in the U.S. Air Force. A fourth new board member, Manning W. Lilton, is enrolled in the master of business administration program at the University of Missouri, St. Louis.

Manager of personnel service with the Nestle Company, Inc., since October 1976, he is a member of industrial relations and occupational safety councils, as well as a panel member on the Illinois Governor's Grievance Panel. In other action Thursday night the board of directors accepted the following recommendations for board officers and elected: president, George W. Dickerson of Alton; vice-president, Sharen Bull of Alton; secretary, Avery Schermer of Granite City; and treasurer, Richard B. Pitts of Alton.

Madison jumper Tim Colston has been so all year; now he gets a chance to talk about it... and more

TIM COLSTON in action in the IHSAA State Championships.

By PETE HAYES

Press-Record Sports Editor
CHARLESTON — When Tim Colston transferred to Madison High School last summer from CBC High in St. Louis, Trojan basketball coach Larry Graham was licking his chops. Colston was one of the best small school basketball players in the area last year for CBC, even though his team didn't have a tremendous season (12-14). But Colston averaged a little over 16 points per game as a junior, and Graham was hoping for that a more from Colston as a member of the defending state basketball champions.

Colston produced. He came through with an outstanding season for Madison on the basketball court.

BUT there was another man at Madison High who was also licking his chops, Charlie Stepote, the head track coach. Not only did Colston have a fine season for CBC on the court last year, he did the same in the first events on the track team. Two field events to be precise. The long jump and the triple jump.

"I PLACED sixth in the state (Missouri) in the triple jump as a junior," said Colston. "I didn't make it in the long jump, but I like it really a little better."

Colston DID make it this time around in the state track meet. Only this time, it was a different state. Illinois instead of Missouri.

He placed fourth in the triple jump and sixth in the long jump to help Madison to a second-place finish as a team here in the IHSAA Class A (750 enrollment or less) state meet held this weekend.

FRIDAY, Colston was a bit worried. "Oh, I think I'm going to qualify for the finals," he said. "But I've got to find an extra foot somewhere. I've jumped about a foot more on the average this season than I've been doing here (the state meet)."

Colston found a few more inches as it turned out, but not that foot he spoke of.

HOW does the 6-3 jumping jack like high school sports in Illinois as compared to Missouri? "Well, in track, I'd say the field events are about equal here as in Missouri, but the running events are better in Missouri," said Colston.

"In fact, that's all they concentrate on over there. Running."

How about his other sport, basketball? "No doubt about it," said Colston. "Basketball is much, much better on this side of the river. There's no comparison. There's that much difference." COLSTON also makes no bones about saying which sport he prefers. It's basketball. "I want to go one and play somewhere and play ball," said the lanky senior. "But I really don't know where yet."

About his ace leaper, Stepote said, "He's very consistent."

We've been able to count on getting points from his events all season long."

BEFORE he could have known just how close his team would come to winning the state championship, Colston said of its chances: "I think we've got a good shot at it. I've got to find that extra foot somewhere, and we'll have to get good jobs by our relays."

"But it'll be close. There's several teams here that can win it all. It's gonna be a real close."

Tim Colston's a pretty good prognosticator too.

South's Boker, Backs fall at state meet

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS — Granite City South's doubles team of Tom Boker and Ron Backs defeated Greg Hindene and Marty Lesko of Belleville West here Thursday in the opening round of the IHSAA State Tennis Tournament. The scores were 6-4, 6-1.

Boker and Backs, however, were eliminated in the next round of action when they were defeated by a duo from Evanston, by the same scores as 6-4, 6-1.

Kreg Yingst of Libertyville won the singles match Saturday night and Dave Bilstrom and Jew Daw of Aurora West captured the doubles title Saturday in the finals of the tournament.

Team-wise, Hinsdale finished first with 22½ points, followed by Aurora West with 21, Oak Park 19, New Trier East with 18½ and Libertyville with 15.

Yingst defeated Tracy Fensel of Rockford Guilford 6-2, 6-1 to take top honors in singles action. Bruce Brescia of Oak Park finished third by beating Tracy Cushing of Hinsdale Central 7-6, 6-6.

In doubles, Bro Ballantine and Steve Isible of Hinsdale Central took second place after their first-place loss to Bilstrom and Daw.

Lincoln was fifth and Charleston sixth.

Matt Stewart won the pole vault (Larry James of East St. Louis was second). Duane Bibbie of Thornton won the long jump. Mike Lehman of Oak Lawn won the shot put.

Gail Olsen of Sycamore, the nation's top high school jumper, won that event with a height of 7-7. He also won the discus, Bibbie Thornton won the triple jump, Proviso East won the mile relay.

Steve Turner of Lindbloom was the winner of the 100-yard dash. Jim Smith of Kanekee Westview won the 226-yard dash. Tim Tuglin of Elgin was the winner of the 440.

Jim Spivey of Bensenville won the 880. Tom Graves of Bensenville was the winner of the mile. Bob McGee of Evanston won the 120-yard high hurdles and Vic Shockey of Hinsdale Central was the winner of the 330-yard low hurdles.

Beary, an early contender, slid out and fell giving the lead to a hold to aim at and he did, diving under McClure out of the third turn of the fourth lap. That left just Thompson.

Chris Reitz tried to also slip past McClure on the inside and slid out, tangling with the motorcycle in a heap in the second turn, the rest of the field scrambled by and Reitz was left to pick up his Yamaha and push it off the track. He was unhurt.

Roberts blasted by Thompson in the next lap to take the lead and from there to the checkered flag it was just a matter of keeping ahead of the hard-charging Thompson, who had all he could do to stay in front of McClure. Doug Ahn was fourth, followed by Rick Oxtan, Mark Holmes, Mike Ragan, Jim Setzkorn and Chuck Schaefer.

Robert's wins as cyclist returns

Pro motorcycle short track racing returned to the Tri-City Speedway here Friday night, opening the season. The 1978 cycle series will continue on June 6 and every succeeding Tuesday night in June.

Charlie Roberts, Springfield, survived the heat races and the semi to challenge the top contenders in the country, including Rob Beary, 1977 track champion, and Guy McClure, 1976 track champion.

On the start of the feature final, Greg Thompson of Bensenville was the leader, but the pressure from behind was great as McClure and Roberts joined Thompson's Suzuki teammate, Beary, in trying for the lead.

Beary, an early contender, slid out and fell giving the lead to a hold to aim at and he did, diving under McClure out of the third turn of the fourth lap. That left just Thompson.

Chris Reitz tried to also slip past McClure on the inside and slid out, tangling with the motorcycle in a heap in the second turn, the rest of the field scrambled by and Reitz was left to pick up his Yamaha and push it off the track. He was unhurt.

Stepote. "It's bad enough just sitting in it here in the stands. Just imagine what it's like out there running on that track."

As things turned out, it wasn't just the weather which burned up the artificial surfaced track... there were a few runners in green and white Madison uniforms doing that too.

Martinez and Linhart star

BLOOMINGTON — Granite City's Greg Linhart and Mike Martinez were among the leading hitters on the Illinois State University baseball team this spring, according to statistics recently released by the school.

Linhart's combined fall-spring average was .356, second-best in the squad to Dave Koopman's .416 mark.

Martinez had the fourth-best average on the Redbirds' team, with a .327 average.

Counting spring averages only, Linhart was shaded by percentage points for the top spot by Jeff Zitek. Zitek hit .370 compared to Linhart's average of .369.

Last season, Martinez was the team's leading hitter at .316 and was the only Redbird to bat over .300.

This season, the combined team average for ISU was .298. The overall spring-fall record for the Redbirds was 25-19.

SOUTH'S CLIFF MORAN CLEARS THE BAR IN THE POLE VAULT PRELIMINARIES.

A busy, busy place

CHARLESTON — This was a pretty busy place over the weekend.

Oh, it wasn't anything compared to Indianapolis where they ran the 550-mile classic. But nonetheless, there was something going on here that attracted about 8,000 people on Friday and over 10,000 on Saturday.

What "it" was was the Illinois High School Association's 1978 Track and Field Championships held here at Eastern Illinois University on O'Brien Field.

The quad cities were well-represented. Madison sent the most participants. That had two relay teams and qualified individuals in five events. Several athletes participated in more than on events.

Granite City South sent three thin clads. Pole vaulter Cliff Moran made the trip. So did shot putter Jay Heubner and 800-yard run man Bert Houston.

Granite City North sent its two-mile relay team of Mike Baker, Aaron Hickam, Glenn Edwards and Greg Stolt.

After the first day of qualifying, only the athletes from Madison had survived.

Madison eventually went on to finish second in the overall team race behind Robinson. Only three points separated the two teams.

Earnest Davenport became the quad cities' only individual state champion when he won the 440-yard run.

The weather? Hot. VERY hot. Temperatures hovered at the mid-ninety degree mark. On the floor of the stadium it seemed like much more.

But after it was all over, a new champion had been crowned in the Class A (small school) division and East St. Louis had claimed its fourth straight Class A (large school) crown.

A FAMILIAR FACE AT THE MEET WAS GRANITE CITY SOUTH WRESTLING COACH BILL SCHMITT, ACTING AS A SPOTTER.

MADISON'S MARCUS WHITE (RIGHT) AND WADE ATKINS OF DU QUOIN GRIMMACEAS THEY BATTLE FOR THE TAPE IN THE 220.

TWO DEJECTED STEELERS, MIKE BAKER (LEFT) AND AARON HICKAM, WALK AWAY FROM THE FIELD AFTER FALLING IN THE TWO-MILE RELAY FRIDAY MORNING.

Youth faces four charges

Michael Gancheff, 18, of 3108 Edgewood Ave., was charged with unlawful use of a weapon, failure to have a firearm owner's identification card, disorderly conduct and interfering with police after a disturbance behind the Starlight Tavern, 1225 Madison Ave., Madison, at 2:35 a.m. Monday.

Officers said about five persons were in the tavern parking lot yelling and causing a disturbance and two persons were in a parked auto drinking liquor. A 17-year-old in the car was asked to get out for questioning and was being taken to a police car when Gancheff allegedly stepped between the officer and the youth and refused to allow the officer to put the youth in the squad car.

Gancheff then was taken into custody and put in the squad car. While he was being taken to the police station, an officer in a vehicle behind the squad car alleged seeing him pushing something in the police car's rear seat and alerted the driver by radio.

He was ordered out of the car and police searched the seat, allegedly finding a loaded .22 caliber revolver.

Gancheff appeared before Associate Judge Thomas Gibbons Monday morning and was released on his own recognizance.

Illinois craft heritage play

The National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows will sponsor the Children's theatrical production, "The Illinois Ozarks: A Heritage of Crafts," Sunday, June 4. The 2 p.m. performance will be held in St. Joseph's Visitors Center at the shrine, 9500 W. Ill. Rt. 15.

Tracing the evolution of crafts in Southern Illinois, it is produced by the Illinois Ozarks Craft Guild in conjunction with the Community and Educational Arts Association through a grant from the Illinois Arts Council.

Written by Bonnie Krause of Alto Pass, the play blends music, dance, dialogue and narration. The 50-minute production guides the young viewer from Indian days through early pioneer years, the Civil War and the development of coal mining to present days. There is no admission charge.
